Jami Ober Gan presents her first novel, The Lost and Found

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Long-time Tucson resident Jami Ober Gan, has released her first novel, The Lost and Found. Gan has been very active in Tucson, both as a professional and a volunteer, serving on various local boards and becoming involved in several community organizations. In 2007 she retired after teaching and consulting with a specialty in deaf education. In 2018 she launched a glass and pottery business, Fired – Kiln Creations by Jami.

Gan's debut novel introduces Jade, who leaves home with her trust shattered and her heart broken, only to find herself stranded in Tucson. A kind stranger invites her to stay at a ranch, known as The Lost & Found. This is where Jade and 12-year old Lilly, the last alter personality to be integrated back into Diana, a wonderful, yet broken 58-year old, meet and instantly connect. The residents, each with their own story, make a home that they hope Diana will come back to, when she is ready to reclaim her life. The Lost and Found provides Lilly and Jade opportunities to help heal the other in fantastic, quirky and unexpected ways.

The book is available in paperback for $16.99 and ebook for $4.99 at Amazon.com and various other e-book retailers. Links to all buying options are at jamiobergan.com/buy. Requests for autographed copies may be made at jamiobergan.com/contact
